

- First play each hand separately. The L.H. will play the same melody using a lower C Pentascale. Listen for a smooth, legato sound.
- Now play hands together. Let your R.H. “teach” your L.H. Notice the letter names stay the same, but the finger numbers are different.

Transpose Chant of the Monks to the G pentascale. Then create a short “Alleluia Chant” of your own. Use the G pentascale and play up or down by 2nds (steps). Play R.H. alone, L.H. alone, or hands together.

Teacher Duet: See bottom of page 42.
