

The Csus4 Chord

“Sus4” is short for “suspended 4th.”

The sus4 chord uses the 4th note (F) in place of the 3rd note (E) to give a suspended feeling to this chord.

The Csus4 chord usually resolves to the C chord, for a feeling of peaceful resolution.

Chord symbol

The letter name of a chord, written above the treble staff, indicates the harmony.

A gavotte is a lively French dance in $\frac{4}{4}$ time. It usually begins with two upbeats.
