

The Best of Life

By Rickie Byars

There's a new territory that I never saw before.

Like a fire of transformation breaking through my core.

It's shining in the darkness.

I can see the light of day.

And this new territory, is my strength, it
is my way.

There's a new territory that I never saw
before.

Like a fire of transformation breaking
through my core.

It's shining in the darkness.

I can see the light of day.

And this new territory, is my strength, it
is my way.

Said this new territory is my strength and so I pray...

Well I pray... I pray...

That you... that you...

Will see the best of life...

The best of love...

The very best of every thing!

Well I pray... I pray...

That you... that you...

Will see the best of life...

The best of love...

The very best of every thing!

Wake up! Wake up!

And see the best of life...

The best of love...

The very best of every thing!

Wake up! Wake up!

And see the best of life...

The best of love...

The very best of every thing!

FORGIVE! FORGIVE!

And see the best of life...

The best of love...

The very best of every thing!

FORGIVE! FORGIVE!

And see the best of life...

The best of love...

The very best of every thing!

SAY YES! SAY YES!

And see the best of life...

The best of love...

The very best of every thing!

SAY YES! SAY YES!

And see the best of life...

The best of love...

The very best of every thing!

LET GO! LET GO!

And see the best of life...

The best of love...

The very best of every thing!

LET GO! LET GO!

And see the best of life...

The best of love...

The very best of every thing!

I PRAY. I PRAY. You see the best of life, the best of love, the very best of everything.

Well, I pray, that you, will see the best of life, the best of love, the very best of everything!

Well, I pray that you will see the best of life, the best of love, the very best of everything.
